8,500 souls, and the Capital, San Marino, has 1,200. It is perched on the summit of a mountain called Mount Titan, or the Giants, which sometimes leads to this little State being termed the Titanic Republic. Its origin dates from the Fourth century, and for heraldic bearings it has the following: Argent, three strong towers asure on three rocks of the same; three curved flames, gules, issue from the towers and crown them. The motto is "Libertas." The escutcheon is surrounded by flags and surmounted by a crown, indicating a sovereign State. The Republic has an order of chivalry, created in 1839, under the name of Order of San Marino. It consists of a Greek cross, with towers at the four

Oudinot, took refuge in San Marino, forbidding his soldiers to do any harm to the inhabitants. Victor Emmanuel not only respected the liberty and institutions of this little country, but always showed it great sympathy, especially on his visit to Bologna at the time of the inauguration of the Ancona railway in 1851. In 1862 a treaty of customs and commerce was concluded between Italy and the Republic.

San Marino owes owes its foundation to a hernit of that name, born in Dalmatia in the fourth century, and who went to work as a mason at the rebuilding of the wall of Rimini. Marino afterward took refuge in the midst of the woods on

The passengers for some time had been regarding the affectionate gestures of a young couple who cocupied a seat near the centre of the car. It was evident that they loved each other to 'death, and the bold glitter in. the fellow's eye indicated that when a dark tunnel came along he was going to bite the dimple in the girl's cheek. Just then the train stopped at a station and the incoming passengers speedily found seats, saving two ladies who came in late, to find themselves occupying a stand-up ticket. They stopped just behind the seat of the loverlike couple and glanced hesitatingly about for a vacant pow. Then one of the ladies softly said:

"They seem to be engaged."

The loverlike couple separated like a flash, and the girl, with a very red face, angrily retorted:

"Of course we are. You don'ts' pose I'd set, here letting him squeeze my hand in public If we we'n't, do you."

The ladies were petrified, but the other passengers took it all in and there was a burst of applause that stopped the train.
